

Dear Özdisan member,

Protection of your personal information and providing security during your payments are extremely important for us. During membership registration we will collect information about our members and we will not sell this information(unless otherwise stated) to third parties for any commercial purpose outside of our field of operation.

Membership information can be shared for official purposes upon your request. If you are thinking a violation about this, you have always a right to contact with us via info@ozdisan.com